This was my first event in the Inland Empire, thank you for organizing this event! I dropped by for a late dinner on Sunday and grabbed my side greek salad, grilled steak entree (medium), and baklava to-go.

The salad was very crispy and refreshing. The steak was a bit over-cooked for medium and the rice was a little on the salty side but very delicious! I loved the tzatziki sauce on the side. The pita was also really soft and delicious! I wanted to try the baklava ice cream but unfortunately they were out so I opted for the baklava instead. I shared with my friend and this was our first time trying baklava. It was really delicious and not TOO heavy.

The service was great and I was quite surprised by how busy it was for a Sunday evening. The food was a bit of a wait, but that's how you know it's fresh!

Thank you to the Great Greek Mediterranean and mylesha for setting this up!

Came in on Monday and they served us right away. Mike was really great !! very attentive and answered all the questions I had about the food.

The inside was clean and there were fresh flowers in every table. There's a couple of TVs around the room.

The food is great. Freshly made. I ordered the chicken plate with a side with feta fires and let me tell you the fries were amazing!! Honestly to die for. You would think the feta would be overpowering but it was honestly perfect. The portion size is pretty decent. My husband and I shared.

Also tried the baklava and it was super good. My husband hates sweets but he loved it.

It's a definite must try. Will be coming back

Thank you so much Yelp and The Great Greek for putting together this event. I would have never even know of this place opening if I hadn't attended this event.

We were just at Greek fest, so I had recently had a Gyro and decided to get an entrée plate. I wanted steak, but was told I was only allowed to get chicken as my choice. I'm looking at everyone else's reviews and they were able to choose another option, so I'm really bummed out about that and not sure why I was limited. My plate came with a salad, a side, soda and a dessert. I got the feta fries, and baklava ice cream. The girl helping us was really nice and we placed an additional order for my husband to try the chicken Gyro and we shared a plate of hummus.

The chicken plate wasn't bad. I'm Armenian and my family makes kebab all the time. I'm over the chicken lol, so not a chicken fan. I just did not enjoy it the way I would have enjoyed the steak. The hummus was a bit more clumpy than smooth, but was delicious along with the pita bread. The salad was massive, so I only got a few bites. My husbands Gyro was so good, I wish I had gotten that instead. I do also like that they had garlic hot sauce near the soda fountain and it gave our food a little kick. We got the baklava ice cream to go and even though it was so cold, it had gotten a little melty. It was really good though.

I would definitely come here again and order their gyro. The price is reasonable for that, but I think the price for their plates is a little high. My comped Yelp meal was almost $40 (entrée, drink, salad and dessert) and that's just for one person. I'm just really bummed I was limited in only getting a chicken option and was really looking forward to trying something else, but I hope The Great Greek does well and stays busy.

I have not loved rice pudding more until this moment. I came here for the gyro wrap but I left here without it and in love with something I didn't expect myself to get. I had my eyes set on the wrap but I asked the worker for his recommendation and he suggested the chicken breast souvlaki plate. It came with two skewers, pita, and rice. The skewers were unfortunately kind of dry but dipping it in the tzatziki added a bit of moisture back. The rice was kind of salty for my preference so I ate the pita instead, which was not the fluffiest I've ever had but still satisfying. I'm happy we were also offered the Greek salad because I felt like my meal would've been incomplete without some greens.

What I loved even more was the dessert. I had three options: baklava, baklava ice cream, or rice pudding. I read someone's review on how good their rice pudding was and I was sold. The verdict...they were RIGHT. It had a good bouncy and chewy texture from the rice but still creamy without being overly sweet. They added the right amount of cinnamon and I can honestly say it's the best rice pudding I've ever had. Now I have to go here every time I crave it because the grocery version will not do it justice.

The inside was very clean and modern with plenty of seating. The workers were all very nice and they brought the dishes to my table when they were ready.

Thank you Mylesha, Yelp and the Great Greek Mediterranean Grill for such a nice event!

Michael was an absolute gem, his friendly demeanor and attentive manner made this experience all worthwhile. Micheal and Edwin the other manager stop by at every table to greet the customers and check in on us.

I've been here before the Yelp event and Micheal continually has a friendly conversation with each of his customers, today was no exception.

I had the souvlaki plate a choice of chicken breast skewers, steak, lamb or shrimps skewers. I opted for chicken breaks and beef tenderloin skewers, with rice pilaf, pita and tzatziki and a side of salad and baklava for dessert. Self service on the fountain drinks.

Wow! The flavor here were consistent to my last visit prior. The chicken breast cooked perfectly moist and full of flavor. The beef skewers cooked to my preference medium rare, Soft and tender. (It's a slightly salty for my taste, but with a spritz of lemon juice and tzatziki it balance nicely.) the souvlaki plate portion is big, definitely made to share with a friend.

Clean and inviting atmosphere, plenty parking spaces available.

Thank you to Mylesha and The Great Greek Mediterranean Grill!

My daughter and I visited The Great Greek Mediterranean Grill on Sunday afternoon and it was busier than we expected. The line wasn't long but there were only a few vacant tables.

The restaurant was clean. The area to the bathroom area was clean and the soda area was clean. The only thing I noticed was that there wasn't a clearly defined area for trash. This could be a potential problem. If the trash can was underneath the soda bar we didn't check as there was no sign or label indicating thus (and we didn't want to open the cabinets to check).

The service was pretty good but at points the staff seemed visibly overwhelmed. My daughter and I waited near the soda bar after placing our order since there was limited seating. After about ten minutes of waiting we turned around facing the front and were asked if we had a question. I said no just waiting on our order.

We moved to the side near the window and eventually found a clean and vacant table to sit at while we continued to wait. It took about fifteen minutes for our food to be ready but it was worth the wait. I could see myself eating here for lunch often if we lived closer.

I placed a to-go order for the falafel wrap for my Yelp event experience, with feta fries and baklava. It also came with a drink and a red Yelp swag bottle with the white Yelp logo. The food was delicious. The falafel was softer than I'm used to but it was seasoned well. The tomato and lettuce were fresh and crisp. The tzatziki sauce was creamy and cold. I really like that there was a generous layer of hummus at the bottom of the wrap. The feta fries were amazing! Everything was amazing and flavorful.

I also ordered and separately paid for a falafel wrap for my daughter. She enjoyed it immensely. It was so filling neither one of us finished our wraps and had leftovers for dinner.

Thank you The Great Greek Mediterranean Grill for offering us the full delicious meal.

I also want to thanks Mylesha for organizing another amazing event.

It was great meeting Becky L and Nate A for elite dinner meetup.

The service was great and they actually came by to check upon us to make sure everything is okay.

Original Order

Two Skewers of Beef Served with a Side Salad, Tzatziki, and Pita Bread Plus Rice Pilaf

Coca-Cola

Green Salad

Baklava Ice Cream -Crumbled Baklava - Vanilla Bean Ice Cream - Honey

Replaced Order

Two Skewers of Grilled Chicken Served with a Side Salad, Tzatziki, and Pita Bread Plus Rice Pilaf

Somehow the rice or beef meat felt salty so I told the cashier and she kindly replace it with a smaller plate of Chicken. The chicken was good but it was dry and not juicy enough.

The indoor decor look really nice. They have tables inside and outside.

I will definitely come back with my family who are vegetarian as they love to eat falafel.

Sorry for the late review.

Thank you Mylesha and Yelp for this event! I thoroughly enjoyed the food and experience. My new Mediterranean spot.

The service was great. The guy at the register really knows what he's doing.

I ordered the Lamb kebab plate with Baklava as for my dessert.

The Greek salad was great. Their dressings was a perfect blend of zest. A lot of other places' dressings are alittle too sour for me.

The lamb kebab was so tender and flavorful. It was just the right amount of spice! The rice was also perfect.

The baklava was alittle too sweet for me but nonetheless, it was absolutely delicious! Totally worth it!!!

First , thank you Mylesha ,IE CM , for this opportunity to participate in this Elite Week!

Last but not least , a million thanks to GREAT GREEK MEDITERRANEAN GRILL for offering it's YELP Elite way with one (1) fountain beverage,

one (1) small Greek salad,

one (1) any gyro, rice bowl or entrée, and one (1) Baklava, rice pudding or cookies .

Very generous offering to taste their authentic flavor dishes!

I ordered the medium cooked

Grilled Steak Souvlaki which was served with 2 Skewers of Tenderloin Steak over Rice Pilaf, and sides of quartered sliced Pita breads and Baklava for dessert.

Tenderloin steak was cooked to perfection and very tender.

Although the meat was on the salty side , it balanced the flavor when I squeezed lemon on it , then dipped in the Tzatziki sauce and eaten with rice pilaf !!!! Yummmmmmy!!

I'm a person with sweet tooth so I was expecting the Baklava layers to be drenched with buttery syrup but top layer was dried phyllo crust.

The staff are friendly and we were treated with outstanding service, making sure we were satisfied.

I love the red color theme of the dining area . Very spacious with a lot of seating space around and distances between tables.

Will for sure try to come back another day to try the gyro with steak

This place opened up a few months ago near the Victoria Gardens.

I got the great Greek gyro wrap ($10.95) which was filled with chopped lettuce, tomatoes, red onions, tzatziki, and feta cheese; I got it with lamb meat for extra. They do ask how you prefer your meat cooked and I had asked for it to be cooked well. The chunks of lamb was still tender and the lamb taste wasn't as strong. I asked for a side of feta fries which is mozzarella and feta melted onto crispy fries with a lemon wedge. The lemon went well with the feta.

The baklava was still crispy the day after I bought it. The syrup is not too sweet and they did not go heavy-hand with the amount.

I also bought a gyro platter and a Four dip combo ($15.95) sampler plate to try their appetizer selection. The gyro was tender and not salty, the meat was cut nicer and not too thin. It came with pita bread and chopped red onions.

The tzatziki was not as tangy with bits of thinly sliced cucumber and olive oil. They gave me plenty of pita bread to dip into the sauces. The tirokafteri was rich with the cream cheese, roasted peppers and feta cheese. The hummus was good along with the meltzanosalata dip which was roasted eggplants with olive oil and lemon juice.

I tried their avgolemo soup which is a lemony chicken broth with bits of chicken and rice.

The staff is nice. Plenty of parking outside and a large amount of seating inside. They also gave me a branded yelp water bottle for the event.

Thank you to Mylesha and the Great Greek crew for hosting!

What a pleasant experience this was. Upon entering, I was greeted by the team. The restaurant is clean and open with plenty of seating indoors and a couple of seats outside.

What I ate: I started with a spinach and feta cheese spanakopita. It was light and flaky. My entree was the chicken skewer plate with rice and pita bread with tzatziki. The chicken was tender and juicy, and everything was very flavorful. The Greek salad was so refreshing, and they don't skimp on the feta! Dessert? Fresh out of the oven baklava. Everything was made to order and so delicious.

Food aside, I have to highlight the customer service. Edwin was a gem. From the moment I walked in, stepped up to the counter to order to the time I exited and he was consistently providing that same great service to every guest that came into that establishment.

This was a really great treat. Thank you Great Greek & Yelp CM & Team for putting this together and inviting me.

Parking is around back. I thought my map had the wrong addy but this places is tucked away next to businesses. Came on a Monday evening so Peking was not an issue. Them seem to have tons due to businesses nearby as well.

I got the gyro meat plate with fries and baklava ice cream. Pictures looked great so I decided to try it out.

They had what sounded like authentic Greek music playing. They have two small tvs playing Monday night football.

The side salad was very fresh and refreshingly light. Had olives, red onion, romaine latte ice and feta cheese.

The gyro was so good!! I added the white sauces they gave me, tons of garlic hot sauce and squeezed the lemon in it as well! My mouth and tummy were so happy! The pita bread was so soft, the meat was extremely tender, perfectly Sliced & packed With flavor. The tomatoes and red onions gave it a little more zest. The combination of it all was really tasty! It came with fries too.

Service was impeccable. Brought my god out with and neatly packed my baklava ice cream to go. I was full so had to eat my dessert later.

The ice cream was good. I tasted honey and nutty tones. Different but in a good way! I loved it as well.

Overall, very pleased with this meal. So filling!

Funny story! I saw this place by south coast and we almost stopped by but a friend of mine wasn't in the mood to try something new. Finally I'm here at the Rancho Cucamonga location.

I got to try the following:

Gyro and fries combo - meat was tender and flavorful. The gyro was huge. Very filling and tasty. 4/5 stars

Baklava - very sticky and soft! It was one of the best I have had. 4/5 stars Service was fantastic. The place is very clean.

Service was great! The place is super clean and full of natural light which I love. A great healthy option if you get rice (not the fries) and a kabob. The sauces were so good! And the baklava - YUM! I would suggest not having the air conditioner on so high. It was almost too cold to enjoy being in there while we waited for our food. Thank you for allowing us to check out the spot! This has been my favorite Yelp event to date! The Great Greek Med Grill is sooo generous with their complimentary items. I was offered such a massive amount of food that I had leftovers to last me through the weekend :) Thanks to The Grill and our wonderful CM for organizing this awesome event!

First things first... Parking and check in were super easy. The restaurant was clean and well air conditioned even though it was blazing outside. Large space, not very busy. The quiet and casual atmosphere would be ideal to do some light work or catching up on emails.

I tried the salad, the steak tenderloin bowl with fries, and the baklava ice cream. I got everything without feta because it's not my thing, but the salads usually come with it and there's an option for feta fries too.

Firstly, the salad was delicious. The crisp and fresh veggies went down so easy with the warm pita and creamy tzatziki. The pita was incredibly soft and bready. I was really impressed. The yogurt sauce was flavorful and super savory. It's a great all purpose sauce. I ate it as a salad dressing, as sauce for the steak, and as dip for the pita and fries... I'd buy a bottle if I could!

I did notice that the salad seemed to have been tossed in oil. I'm a bit of a health nut, so I would have liked to have been asked if I wanted the oil dressing on the side. Otherwise very yummy though.

The entree was really great as well! I received a really generous portion of steak kababs and crispy fries hot off the grease. The steak was tender and perfectly medium rare. I loved dipping the fries in the baklava ice cream (IYKYK) which was so heavenly to have on such a hot day. Very creamy, very sweet, topped with slivered almonds. I initially wanted to try the rice pudding but they were sold out, but the ice cream did not disappoint.

I'll be back soon, 100%! I had no idea this place had opened, and I'm glad I was able to find a new favorite lunch spot thanks to this event.

Thank you, Mylesia and YELP, for this opportunity to try out a new restaurant. I walked in last night around 6:47. No wait. We were able to choose from a Gyro or Chicken Skewers. I chose a gyro. We also got a side salad and dessert and drink. I somehow ended up with a full salad. I also ordered the Baclava. Food came to my seat. I saw some received swag previously. I was offered none. Maybe they ran out. The Gyro was huge! It was a tad salty, but it was tasty and filling. The salad was fresh. The baklava was soggy. It was drenched in a sauce. Too sweet. Overall, good service and tasty food. The portions are generous and hit the spot. The dining room is decent size and very quiet. Perfect for a quiet meal alone or a date night.

The food was delicious! I ordered the greek plate with gyro meat and rice pilaf. The servings were pretty large so if you're not a big eater, then you can probably take half of the plate home. When there were some mix-ups on the order, the staff was very accommodating to fix it promptly. This is a nice place for a casual lunch.

I'm also not usually a huge fan of rice pudding because of the texture, but I have to say this dessert here changed my tune. I enjoyed the bite in the rice pudding and it wasn't overwhelmingly sweet so it was good for me! I'd come back to try their apps and other proteins.

Thank you to The Great Greek Mediterranean Grill and Mylesha for organizing and hosting this Yelp Elite experience. I chose the the Great Greek Plate with gyro meat and rice pilaf and the baklava for dessert. I appreciated that the plate came with a side salad, so you can get some greens with your meal. The rice pilaf was savory and nicely seasoned. My entree consisted of gyro meat wrapped around pita bread with red onions, lettuce, tomatoes, feta, and tzatziki sauce. It was definitely filling, and I appreciated that every bite had a combination of different flavors from the savory meat, refreshing vegetables, and creamy sauce. The baklava was flaky and decadent from the syrup and nutty filling. It was my first time having baklava, and I would definitely order it again.

I've lived around here for a couple of years and I never tried this place until today.

I got to say, this place is amazing with friendly service, cleanliness, and great food! It's my new to-go spot for Mediterranean. Sorry Daphnes in Ontario, this place is closer and tastier.

The Great Greek gyro was so good! I love their cottage cheese/greek yogurt that they added. It makes the gyro taste creamy and compliments the flavor. The gyro meat is seasoned well and not dry. The veggies have a nice fresh crunch and give a nice texture to each bite, also giving it a lighter feel.

I went around closing time, about 15 minutes before they were about to close and I was glad that they still allowed me to order. The cashier was friendly and was helpful and guided me through my ordering process.

The wait time was about 5 minutes and I was out in no time. Definitely coming back in the future.

The spot is actually really cute and pretty clean. A little weird with their combination of lights though. Kinda hard to find cuz it's in a pretty dark plaza next to a Dunkin and Firehouse subs.

The folks behind the counter are really nice. They did mess up my order multiple times and it's okay. I think they're super new and haven't gotten their buttons in order.

The food was still really good though. Loved that they asked me how I wanted my protein cooked. Well seasoned meat and rice pilaf and really good tsaziki. I didn't care for the feta fries but the fries were well made with plenty of crunch and a nice dense fry. I wanted the baklava but ended up with the baklava ice cream. It was still absolutely delicious and couldn't stop eating it.

Will absolutely come back another time to try something else. I hope they improve their order taking skills though.

This was my first time trying a gyro and it was so good! The meat was very tender and flavorful. I got the rice as a side and I'm really glad I did because it tasted really good. I bought the Tzatziki sauce to go with my Pita bread that came with my salad. I didn't realize they include Pita bread with the sauce so I had so much at the end!

I got Baklava as my dessert and although it was on the sweeter side, it was still great and I recommend it.

The service was awesome! 5/5

Although you pay up front, they bring you your food to your table and they clean up after so I recommend either tipping up front when you pay with card or at the end you can also add cash to the TIP jars (they have 2).

First and foremost, thank you to The Great Greek and Yelp for this event, and my water bottle Yelp swag!

The store was very modern and clean inside and I was immediately greeted by a friendly young woman. Unfortunately, my name wasn't on the list not sure what happened there...but I had my confirmation email and the DM, Michael, came over and took over to get me taken care of.

I decided to go with the souvlaki chicken plate with rice pilaf, the side salad and the baklava for dessert. Overall, it was all pretty good. I really enjoyed the lemon flavor on everything. The chicken was slightly dry, but paired with the tzatziki sauce (I really liked the flavor on the sauce) on a piece of pita, it was still good.

I also ordered separately a side of the lemon potatoes to try and the baklava ice cream. The potatoes had good flavor but were a much more softer potato than I would have liked. I was also disappointed when I found out the ice cream wasn't available after all, but Michael quickly replaced that with the Mom's rice pudding and it was delicious.

I was there during the lunch hour and everything coming out of the kitchen looked delicious and made me want to come back again to try more. I also liked that they offer catering - I think it'd be great to order large portions of this type of food for parties. Looking forward to trying more next time.

I thought the restaurant would be more of a mom and pop vibe, but the interior was very clean and modern. The customer service was very friendly and I had my meal within 10 minutes of ordering.

I got the chicken souvlaki plate with rice pilaf. This was a great lunch! I loved the tzatziki; it was more of a yogurt consistency vs. a dressing consistency.

The baklava was dry like other reviews mentioned, which is funny because it was also loaded in syrup. I wouldn't opt for a baklava from a Greek place anyways, so this wasn't a big deal for me.

Thank you @ieyelp, our CM Mylesha and @greatgreekgrill for a most delicious opportunity to try this new restaurant!

Great Greek is located right off Foothill Blvd in a somewhat quiet and hidden shopping center. There is plenty of parking here and a few other restaurants including a Dunkin Donuts.

The restaurant is clean, has plenty of indoor seating, and a few tables outdoors too.

My hubby and I arrived dinner time on 10/4. There was a young gal at the register who was super sweet, friendly, and helpful. I had their Chicken Souvlaki plate with feta fries and a salad. The chicken was tender, extremely flavorful and delicious! The fries were crispy, topped with seasonings and feta cheese, and was surprisingly delicious too. I also enjoyed their salad- fresh and also full of flavor. Hubby had their lamb souvlaki plate with rice pilaf. He raved about this dish and said he would definitely order it again. We ordered their Tirokafteri appetizer- roasted peppers, feta and cream cheese served with pita bread and found this to be generously portioned and addicting! We ended our dinner and shared the rice pudding and Baklava ice cream. Both were amazing- not too sweet and something I would order again too.

Welcome to Rancho Cucamonga Great Greek! With your Great food and Great employees- I look forward to returning!

Thank you Mylesha and all the staff at The Great Greek! The inside is large and clean. There were two persons working the register so my order was taken quickly. Our salad came out quick and was really tasty for not having a special dressing. The cheese was super fresh. The chicken skewers were good, but a little dry. The tzatziki sauce on the side was a great addition. The feta fries were perfectly made. I also ordered dolmades and they were so good! The kids pizza was a good size and the rice that came as a side option was also tasty.

Awesome event organized by the IE Yelp team and CM! After parking in the spacious back lot, I entered the building and was immediately greeted by friendly staff members. There were plenty of tables inside, with 2 TVs mounted on the walls, a soda machine, and a gender-neutral bathroom. It was very clean and new inside, as I believe their grand opening was just earlier this year in July 2023.

I checked in my name and was given a large Yelp reusable water bottle, which is a great perk to receive. I ordered the Australian Lamb Souvlaki Plate, which came with 2 skewers of Leg of Lamb (cooked to medium), 4 pieces of pita bread, 2 lemon slices, and a generous portion of rice pilaf (which included tomatoes and red onions). I also got a side Greek salad (which consisted of romaine lettuce, olives, onions, tomatoes, cucumbers, and feta cheese) and a large drink (I choose Dr. Pepper).

The lamb was juicy and tasted delicious with just the right amount of seasoning. The tzatziki sauce was an excellent complement to the overall flavor of the meal, and the salad dressing was on point as well. As a big fan of Mediterranean food, I would definitely come back again to try their other food items (gyro, chicken skewers, steak skewers, grape leaves, falafel, hummus, feta fries, and baklava ice cream!).

Thanks Yelp, Mylesha, and The Great Greek Mediterranean Grill for the delicious dinner. I enjoyed everything I tried, especially the rice pudding (I'm a sucker for desserts!). I thought the service was excellent for a quick service restaurant and appreciated the staff periodically checking in and being patient during ordering. The restaurant is spotless and comfortable and I can't wait to return to try more delicious Greek food!

Thank you yelp for the opportunity to review this event! This restaurant is located in a nice area, and the inside is clean and spacious. There is a register to order at the front but the servers bring you your food once it is ready. I really liked the Greek salad, it was so refreshing and had lots of flavor! The feta fries were delicious, they had melted feta cheese on top and were crunchy. The gyro was also very flavorful and a decent size, very filling and had the perfect amount of meat to veggie ratio. The staff were pretty nice, and the wait time was decent. Would recommend this spot if you'd like to try Greek food :)

I ordered the chicken entree with a side greek salad and baklava. And was a very filling lunch! The chicken and rice was well flavored, and the baklava was perfectly sweet but not overly sweet! My only mild complaint was that during the lunch hour, I tried to phone in my order and eas put on hold, and was a little tough to get a call through, but that is to be expected with a newly opened restaurant at lunch. Overall a good experience!

Thank you Yelp and Mylesha for this really nice event with the GGM!
The service was really good , the guy taking our order seemed really to take interest in each person and was conversational.
He explained everything well in terms of how the Yelp we code works. He was still working out some of the "kinks" but realized it when he told me my total and then said oh never mind! Lol
I ordered lamb entree with FETA FRIES , salad, and the baklava for dessert.
The Lamb was well seasoned and but I wish I'd ordered it cooked a bit longer. It was medium but I should have asked for med well. It would have made it more tender. But I definitely enjoyed it along with the Taziki sauce and fries that had the nice seasoning on them and the cheese was crisp on top. The salad was fine typical Greek salad with kalamata olives.
BAKLAVA: it wasn't your typical baklava (in my opinion) it was more of a pastry with pistachios in it.
Thank you Mylesha and Yelp again for this event and your generosity!
I will be back to this place for my future Greek /Mediterranean cravings. Was there SWAG? If so I didn't get it. I saw others say they got a water bottle. I got nothing.

First of all, thanks to Yelp and Mylesha for setting up this event for us! I called ahead to place my order and spoke to Mike, the general manager! He wa super friendly and helpful in getting my order in! The place ample parking when I arrived and was super clean inside! I got the steak souvlaki entree with salad and Baklava! I have to say the portion size was huge, food was fresh and everything was delicious! Will definitely be back for more Greek food in the future for sure!

First off thank you for this experience. Was greeted right away when entering. It was very nice and clean. Gender neutral restrooms. If you have a baby or toddler they also have the high chair and booster seat. A coke machine. And There were fresh flowers on all the tables which were a nice touch.
I ordered beef skewers with feta fries and a hummus, baklava and a salad. Very generous servings and very tasty. I got the beef skewers medium rare and the flavor was so fantastic. Everything tasted amazing. Only thing for me personally I would have liked the hummus creamier. But my husband loved it and scarfed it down. That is just a preference for me but other than that we plan on adding this to our rotation when getting food. And I will for sure be getting the baklava ice cream next time. The manager was so nice and friendly. I need to look at the menu again and see if they offer a catering package.
