My coworker and I stopped at this new place, that she raved about after looking at their website. Their web menu looked very good, however, after visiting the Great Greek Mediterranean Grill, I was impressed.

Mike the GM at the store was very welcoming and did not hesitate to help me make up my mind on the Athenian Burger. I am glad he gave me his opinion... the Burger was excellently well cooked to my order, the sauce with the Angus beef was well-balanced, I decided to order the combo in order to try their Feta Fries. The food was delicious and the customer service was well-received with a friendly smile. After the meal, I ordered their Baklava ice cream, and let me tell you, it was such a great treat... Delicious!!

Overall, its a great place and great people. I will definitely be coming back :)

Great service, better food. The quality was excellent, having tried lots of Mediterranean food before, I was really excited to try this new spot. It did not disappoint! The Great Greek Gyro and the classic salad were bomb!

Food was a 3/5 but I'll put an asterisk on that because I ordered takeout and things always taste better in house.

Customer service was 5/5.

Food, we got a chicken wrap (with side salad and their feta fries), salmon/rice plaf plate, the dip sampler.

For the sampler one of the dips I ordered was hummus but they were out so they subbed for an extra eggplant dip. The dips were ok -- I like the tzatziki, the Tirokafari is tasty but rich! Good in small quantities and even though I love eggplant the melitzanosalata was a bit too smoky for my tastes. Hoping to try the hummus next time! The pitas were good, tastes fresh and soft. We reheated them at home and they were good!

The chicken wrap was big! Can go to one hungry person or be shared for sure. Chicken was tender. Had fresh crisp toppings. Just a little too much feta! We love feta but it was stacked, kinda took over the flavor of the wrap.

It came with fries on the side. We got the feta fries, fries are never at their best for take out but we threw them in the air fryer at home and they were good! I would just get regular fries next time. Seem like they'd be great fresh.

I feel like the wrap is close. Couple adjustments and we'll try it fresh next time. Promising!

The salmon rice plate was good 4/5. Also big! Has a nice unexpected spicy seasoning on top, it was good with some of the tzatziki! No complaints. Got the side salad. It's pretty basic no frills but did the job.

Their customer service is great. The dude working the front was super nice, ran out to my car to give me something I left behind, and had a full head of hair that would make any 40+ year old man envious.

The customer service is what will bring us back to give it another shot! Will report back! They're fairly new in rancho and we want them to succeed!

The food was amazing! The customer service as well. I ordered the Australian lamb and it was so juicy & flavorful. The Greek salad was the star of the show, like, who says that? So so good!

Definitely an interesting place to have lunch. Place has only been open less than a week. Very spacious and clean inside. They have menus to look at or you can order from the menu behind them.

My steak kabob ordered medium could have had a bit more seasoning... but was still good. My shrimp skewer disappeared before my eyes. Everyone grabbed a piece before I could snap a photo. Pigs! But that was a very tasty well seasoned shrimp kabob. The salad had feta cheese on salad dressing on it and was very fresh. Hummus was dialed in and they give you a large amount of pita bread. There is soup... forgot the name.. but it's like chicken soup with rice that was very good. Service was great and awesome.

We were a party of three and each ordered something different. Chicken was cooked but the texture was harder than you expect to be. The other items were fine and service was great and we were well taken care of.

The place was orderly and clean.

Not a bad option for "fast" food Greek... If you have the time. I've been here on three different occasions during my lunch hour for work. Each time it took quite a while to get my food.

First time I figured it was because a huge party (about 30 people) basically walked in just after I ordered and they took over the place. By the time I got my food my lunch hour was almost over. Ok, I get it. You got hit with a huge rush all at once. Totally understandable.

Next two times the place was virtually empty, yet it still took a good 20 - 25 minutes to get my food. And this, with what seemed to be a fully staffed (almost overstaffed?) crew.

Well aside from the wait time, the food itself was mostly quite good. The burger was good, but maybe not worth the asking price. The chicken pita I felt was much better and worth getting again.

Overall I'd go back here for a bite, as long as it's not on my lunch hour.

I went to the Great Greek Mediterranean Grill a couple weeks ago for lunch with my daughter before stopping at Victoria Gardens and was satisfied with everything I ate. Staff was friendly and we were greeted right away. I had their four dip combo with pita bread. I got their Melitzanosalata (roasted eggplant puree with garlic, olive oil, & lemon juice), Tzatziki (Greek yogurt with cucumbers, garlic, & fresh dill), Hummus (garbanzo beans crushed with garlic, olive oil, & lemon juice), and Tirokafteri (creamy Greek feta with spicy roasted peppers). They were all so good and have to say my favorites were the Tirokafteri and Melitzanosalata. I also got the Great Greek Gyro and it was delicious. I got it with with the gyro meat (beef/lamb), lettuce, red onion, tzatziki, and feta. My daughter had their chicken strips with fries and salad. She enjoyed everything. For dessert, we wanted to try the baklava ice cream and it was super yummy! It was very creamy and loved how they add crushed baklava into vanilla ice cream and top it with honey. They just recently opened last month so the restaurant is new, clean, nicely decorated, and there's plenty of seating. One of the managers came to talk to me and mentioned how all the food is made fresh to order and they use quality ingredients, so it may a little bit to get your food but it's well worth it.

Great food and excellent service! I had the steak tenderloin entree with rice pilaf, salad, and it came with pita bread and the tatziki sauce. Sooo bomb! The steak was so tender and the seasoning was perfect. I saved my salad that they serve first and threw it on my plate :)

Found this place randomly...its really hidden ans not in the beat location. Buy we love Greek/middle eastern food so excited to try it. We ordered 2 gyros and 1 chicken/beef skewer plate. They forgot my salad that came with the plate, and the meat lacked seasoning/salt and chicken was a bit too spicy for my toddler. In addition, the meat was too charred and tasted burnt. So i would like it more juicy and not burnt. But the rice tasted delicious! But the gyro sandwiches, as well as the melitzanosalata, tasted really good! I like this place and we will probably come back if we are in the area!

A solid 4 star, if I could give 4.5 I would. Ordered a Gyro for pick up on Uber Eats. Walked in and didn't get helped for a few minutes, but I will say the chefs and folks taking orders were hustling with all of the online/call in orders coming through. I was about to be given my food, but the tall gentleman with glasses double checked and realized the order was slightly incorrect. I ordered the gyro without feta and there was feta on it. He asked the cooks to make a brand new one for me without me even saying a word which was incredible to say the least. On top of that, although the gyro was $14 after tax, the size and girth of this thing was insane. The amount of meat you get definitely makes the price hike worth it! This could've easily been a 2-3 star experience but with the help of the great staff and urgency they automatically displayed, this was a solid 4 star experience. Great job!

The food was to die for and service by manager Edwin who quickly fixed an error in the order and gave us heavenly Baklava ice cream when out of rice pudding. The beef was tender and huge portions. The greek salad, dips and grape leaves awesome! We will return!

Mychal was so friendly and helpful! It was my first time here, so I had a lot of questions. The lamb gyro I ordered was delicious! And my friend's salad had so many yummy looking ingredients in it, I may order that next time too! And we tried the baklava ice cream. Wow! I loved it. The honey drizzled on top was a bonus. I will be back and bring more friends!

We'll you know it's good if 'oh my god' comes out of your mouth as the food goes in (I had the Souvlaki Plate with Australian Lamb). My husband got the Greek gyro and it must have been good because I wasn't offered even a taste. The Greek salad to start is refreshing and I could eat those kalmata olives until I swelled into oblivion. The Baklava is insulin worthy.

Great food great customer service! Juliet and Micheal were awesome! And the food was delicious! 100% recommend!

Stopped by for lunch. I tried the lamb souvlaki with a side of melitzanosalata and Feta fries. The food was delicious! The lamb was moist and seasoned well. The Feta fries were awesome (don't ruin them with ketchup). Finished with some Baklava ice cream drizzled with honey. Just a FYI, this is not fast food. It's great food served fast! Will be coming back again!

Our family loved the Great Greek!

Everything we tried was made fresh to order, with savory seasonings, tender meat, and flavorful creamy sauces.

I especially loved the lamb and steak skewers with crispy feta fries. My son loved the Athenian lamb burger and the shrimp skewer. The creamy hummus and tzatziki sauce with homemade pita were our favorite apps, and we loved the baklava ice cream with baklava!

The service was so kind and knowledgeable - we'll definitely be back!

Adecuado para niños: My 8yo loved the lamb burger, tzatziki dip, pita, shrimp, lamb skewers, and the desserts, of course! Lots of yummy flavors for kids, not just the typical hamburger or fried chicken.

Came here opening week. I used to drive out to Vegas to eat at this place. Food is great, consistent to what I was used to in Vegas. Take it easy on the staff. It's a new restaurant, so routines will take some time. Wait for food was about 20 minutes, I did come right around noon. I will definitely be coming back as it's the best Greek food we've had in the area. We had the great Greek gyro sandwich, feta fries and the gyro plate.

Great manager for this place, he is always on point with the employees when he is there but when he is not, slightly different. However food is great, gyro is awesome complements to the kitchen staff, I have been here 4 times and they still make it same way and have never skipped meat or sauce. Highly recommend coming here.

I called ahead to order, as I didn't have a huge window of time between an appointment and then picking up my daughter from school. Michael was fun and friendly on the phone, but with me being in a hurry, it didn't come across superrr well as I feel like he spent extra time kind of joking around. When I finished saying the order, he said it would take about 12 minutes. In the end, from the time I hung up the phone until the time I got my food, it was actually 25 minutes and I ended up being late for school pick-up. :(

For the food itself, everything was really good!! I had a souvalki mix plate (lamb and steak) with a side salad and rice, as well as a drink and baklava. The meat was really tasty! The rice was yummy, too, and was a generous portion size! The baklava was also a nice size, but makes sense at the $6 price.

They did good with my request not to have onions on my salad, but they made one big mistake: I had clearly ordered feta fries instead of the rice. I noticed only when I was already in the car driving away, and of course I didn't have time to go back. I was super sad because I had been looking forward to the feta fries, but at least the rice was yummy anyway.

The price for the side falafel is not worth the amount of falafel that you get. I received 4 small falafel on top of the salad for $5.61. I think it should be larger falafel or more small falafel and less salad. I ordered side falafel, not side salad.
